

Your poster at #IPBES11

Based on the letter by the IPBES Secretariat to IPBES stakeholders on 23 September 2024.

There is an opportunity to highlight IPBES-related stakeholder initiatives during #IPBES11: you are invited to submit a poster on your activities. Approved posters will be

- displayed during #IPBES11 Stakeholder Day, 9 December 2024.
- displayed throughout the entire 11th IPBES Plenary session, 10-16 December 2024.
- posted to the #IPBES11 Stakeholder Day webpage.

The posters should showcase exclusively examples of successful uptake and impact of IPBES outputs: illustrations of how stakeholders have used IPBES assessments or other outputs and the impact achieved.

Designing your poster & getting approval

To be approved by the IPBES secretariat, your poster must fall under the topic above, and meet the following conditions and requirements:

- Posters should not be smaller than A3 in size (29.7 x 42.0 cm) and not larger than A1 (59.4 x 84.1 cm), exclusively in 'portrait' format/layout.
- A maximum of two posters per individual/organization will be accepted.
- Please include in the submission the author's name and country/institutional affiliation. The submission email must also include an indication of which IPBES output is highlighted in the poster.

To get approval, send an electronic copy of your poster to stakeholders@ipbes.net before 10 November 2024.

Producing & sending your poster

- IPBES will not be responsible for printing of the posters; authors must please bring their printed poster to the venue in Windhoek, Namibia.
- The IPBES Secretariat can organise transport of posters to Namibia for early submissions: submitters wishing to make use of this option must ensure their approved and printed poster reaches the IPBES Secretariat before 1 November 2024:
